

Questionnaire on Men's Perceptions of Sexual Harassment Incidents

1.To what extent do you think the following behaviors qualify as incidents of sexual harassment?

Speaking Vulgar Language

Doing Indecent Acts

Nuisance Calls

Looking at You from Top to Bottom

Physical Contact

Invitations and Threats for the Purpose of Establishing a Sexual Relationship

Exposing Sexual Organs

Violent Treatment

Other

2. If you were sexually harassed, would you choose to fight back? (Yes/No)

3. To what extent do the following reasons for being afraid to fight back against incidents of sexual harassment fit your perception?

I feel ashamed to be sexually harassed

My fear prevents me from taking any action

I don't think anyone will come to help me

I'm afraid of drawing attention to myself

I don't think I'm a match for him at all

I was terrified that he would take revenge on me

4. To what extent do you think the following reasons for fighting back against sexual harassment fit?

I'm scared, but I'll protect myself

I'm not afraid to fight back at all

He made me feel uncomfortable and of course I had to fight back

There were a lot of people around and I had to defend my dignity

He's no match for me.

This behavior cannot be allowed to go unchecked

He will harass others if I don't fight back

5. If you were a woman, would you fight back in the event of sexual harassment? (Yes/No)

6. If you were a woman, what are the following reasons you would take a counterattack, and to what extent do they fit?

I need to learn to protect myself

I will not be afraid to fight back

He makes me feel uncomfortable, male or female, so I have to fight back

There will be more people willing to help me

Female power can be great

We must not let this behavior go unchecked

He will harass others if I don't fight back

7. If you were a woman, what are the following reasons why you would not take a counterattack?

I should be humiliated by sexual harassment

I would feel scared

Thought no one would want to help me

Fear of causing a crowd

I'm no match for him.

I fear retaliation from the other side

8. What do you think are the reasons why women are more likely to experience sexual harassment than men, to the extent that it fits?

Women are disadvantaged compared to men

Women are less aware of self-protection than men

Experiencing sexual harassment may be due to women wearing revealing clothing

A lot of female behavior can be interpreted as seduction

Men are more likely to be attracted to women's physical appearance

Men are more likely to be sexually aroused

Other